

WHISTLEBLOWER?

We don't know who the whistleblower was . . . but we do know the evidence was so convincing that those assembled at the trial had rocks in their hands ready to carry out swift judgment after the inevitable guilty verdict by stoning that adulterous lady described in John 8. I know what you're thinking . . . that is NOT the same whistleblower that I thought I didn't know.

Fortunately for the woman, she had the best defense lawyer in the history of the universe. He simply wrote in the dirt (maybe the accuser's sins or names of mistresses?) and they all dropped their rocks and split!

By the way, if you want good legal representation for your future Heavenly Courtroom Trial, that same defense attorney is available and He usually works Pro Bono (NOT Quid Pro Quo!). He's never lost a case! I've heard that if you do end up being charged guilty, He will simply take your punishment for you so you end up being acquitted if you agree to His plan of changing places with you. All you have to do is consent to an exchange of lives . . . you give Him your imperfect life and He will give you His perfect life . . . if you are willing to relinquish control. Ask Him for help with that!
